BUCKLEY IN RAGE AT PAROLE QUIZ

Promoter Is Grilled By Patriarca Probers

John (Johnny) Buckley, prizefight promoter and manager, once pilot of the fistie career of ex-World's Heavyweight Champion Jack Sharkey, has been questioned by investigators for the state legislative committee probing the alleged "parole racket," it was learned by the Evening American today.

Buckley, quizzed by Lieut. Detective Joseph Ferrari, chief of the committee's investigators, is reported to have become so wrought at the tenor of questions directed at him, that he attempted to leave the inquisition chamber in a rage.

He was under oath, however, and was restrained. The questions are reported to have centered around the pardon under parole conditions of Raymond L. S. Patriarca, Rhode Island's Public Enemy No. 1, whose exit from prison after serving 54 days of two three to five year robbery sentences caused the present furor.

News of the questioning of Buckley followed the summoning of Commissioner of Corrections Arthur T. Lyman to appear before a secret session of the whole committee—a session such as was attended yesterday by Governor's Councilor Daniel H. Coakley, who, at the hearing, took full responsibility for sponsoring the Patriarca pardon.

LYMAN BRINGS PAPERS

Lyman went before the committee with all of his papers involved in the Patriarca case, other cases. These he had with what he said was "certain other information."

Commissioner Lyman, incidentally, formally resigned today Patriarca's permission to leave Massachusetts—so, when he returns to Cambridge, he will not again be able to leave the state should bail be granted.

Sheriff Joseph McElroy of Middlesex County, was notified of the revocation.

Patriarca, reported on his way

MYSTERY GIRL SAVED BY POLICE

Found unconscious in a Hemenway street, Back Bay, apartment, with gas flowing from open jets, a pretty, dark-haired "mystery girl," about 25 years old, was rushed to City hospital today.

Doctors said they believed she would recover, thanks to prompt action of police from the Back Bay station, who used the prone pressure method of resuscitation in the ambulance which took the girl to the hospital.

The girl was found slumped on the floor by the landlady, Mrs. A. M. MacDonald, who notified police. Mrs. MacDonald said the girl had taken the apartment under the name of June Marsh and paid $8.

She hired it last night, the building superintendent said.

She was in bed, fully clothed, when police arrived. She wore a green print dress, brown saddle shoes, sheer flesh colored stockings.

In her handbag was found a paper bearing the name, "Miss June Marsh," and a Riverside Drive, N. Y. address.

Police were told the girl asked directions to a Boston art school, when she took the Hemenway street apartment.

O'BRIEN, 10 OTHERS FREED IN REVERE GAMING CASE

Ex-Mayor James M. O'Brien of Revere, and ten other defendants were freed from charges of conspiracy to operate gambling at the beach resort during the summer of 1937 by a jury's sealed verdict, opened this morning in Suffolk court by Judge Allan G. Buttrick.

The former mayor and his co-defendants were accused of conspiring to conduct gambling in the Ruby Club. The others are Louis Alpert, James Duval, Joseph Tadelman, Morris ("Pudgy") Rosen, "Tootsie Jake" Stutman, Jacob Chanaky, Bernard McKay, Charles Shuman, Bernard Sochet and John P. Walsh.

Charges against Chief of Police Edward Tighe were dismissed and he became a witness for the state. Directed verdicts of not guilty were ordered in the cases of Police Lieutenants Henry Tracy, Patrolman William Gibson and Max Pollock. The trial, third in a series, began June 1.

16 ON TRIAL MONDAY

Monday 16 more will go on trial. All were named with O'Brien and the policemen, but Assistant Attorney General John S. Derham, in charge of the prosecution, stated that seven indictments against O'Brien, and all other charges involving police will be non-prosecuted. The 16 to be tried Monday are:

Charles Shuman, acquitted today; Nicholas Gaeta, a brother of Louis Gaeta, whose murder precipitated the inquiry; Pasquale Barnasso, alias "Pat Rose"; Hyman Berenson, Edward Seigel, Andrew Cataldo, Arthur Haberlow, Arthur Jacobs, James Preston, a fugitive, accused of the Gaeta murder; Charles Caldera, Joseph Cordillo, Michael Kingsley, Archie Engle, J. Goldberg, Sam Zarinsky and Walter H. Hickey.

All are accused of operating various "horse rooms," and policy pools scattered throughout Revere.

O'Brien refused to discuss the verdict after it was returned, referring reporters to his attorney, James Brennan, who said:

"The verdict speaks for itself." The white-haired ex-mayor re-

U. S. Air Prep School Here

The first step in a nationwide air corps expansion program was taken in Boston today, when the War Department selected the New England Aircraft school on Newbury st., as the first school to start functioning as a preparatory ground school for Randolph and Kelly fields in Texas.

From 60 to 300 students will be given three-month courses under the supervision of regular army officers and enlisted men assigned by the War Department.

Bankrupt Auto Risk Firm to Pay $184,694

Distribution of $184,694 to creditors of the defunct Commonwealth Mutual Liability Insurance Company—once rated as a $1,000,000 concern—was authorized today by Supreme Court Justice Arthur W. Dolan.

The money represents 25 per cent of the liabilities of the company, which consist mainly of debts owed doctors and lawyers, and claims allowed compulsory automobile insurance policy holders. Henry P. Fielding, trustee of the "bankrupt concern," was authorized to sell United States Treasury certificates, representing the principal assets of the Commonwealth, in order to meet the 25 per cent dividend, first since the company crashed in 1936.

The Commonwealth owns $196,000 worth of the Treasury certificates, an assets against which are liabilities of balanced claims allowed by the court to the amount of $128,776.10.

In 1936, the smash of the Commonwealth after barely a year of existence, during which the company wrote more than $800,000 worth of compulsory automobile insurance for more than 22,000 policyholders resulted in a sensational legislative investigation.

INVESTIGATION RESULTS

During the probe, it was brought out that the Commonwealth had written policies amounting to $930-

206.02, and had received cancellations amounting to $128,986.64, leaving a net total of $802,122.38 worth of insurance divided among the 23,000 policyholders.

Legislative investigators, following public hearings, charged that the company had been illegally set up and operated, and that its structure had been designed to mask an illegal out-of-the-state financial setup. Frank Cohen, New York cab driver who turned financier, was named as the backer of the Commonwealth.

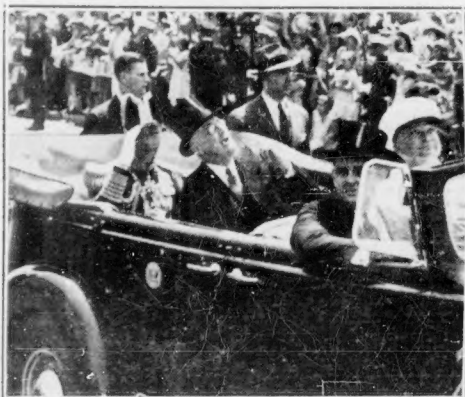

One of the company's "presidents," Everett Annis, received a salary of $15 a week, it was brought out in the testimony. He was brought out in the testimony. He was brought out in the testimony. He was brought out in the testimony.

As a result of the probe, then State Insurance Commissioner Frank J. DeCelles was charged with incompetence, and with licensing the Commonwealth without making the company comply with the laws requiring $100,000 in paid-up premiums to be in its possession at the time.

DeCelles, during the hearings, accused Cohen of "wrecking" the Commonwealth.

King, Queen Captivate Congress At State Reception

WASHINGTON, June 9 (INS)—Facing a battery of Klieg lights, oddly out of place in such an historic setting, the king emperor of the British empire and his lovely queen were given a state reception by the Congress of the United States today in an unprecedented ceremony beneath the gilded dome of the Capitol.

Senators and representatives from every walk of American life and in costume ranging from mismatched coat and pants to formal cutaway, filed solemnly by the royal couple in the great rotunda, shaking their hands. Murmuring "Your Majesty" and passing along.

After the Capitol reception, the King and Queen went to the Washington navy yard, where they met President and Mrs. Roosevelt and boarded the Potomac. The party headed for Mt. Vernon as lunch was served aboard.

The Capitol grounds were crowded to capacity as King George and Queen Elizabeth arrived. But uniforms of marines stood out against a sea of colorful pin-dresses, pinafons and flags. Congressmen already assembled in the rotunda shifted nervously from foot to foot, having nothing else to occupy their mind today except the royal reception.

As the Britannia rulers entered Congress, the close-packed crowd outside cheered wildly and as the cheers filtered in through the door, dignified congressmen also burst into spontaneous cheers of their own.

The congressional reception so touched the King that, on leaving he turned to Senator Key Pittman and, according to Pittman, said:

"Her Majesty and I are unable to express our appreciation of the universal courtesy and friendship we have received."

Their Majesties went to the Capitol after a busy morning.

After a bacon and egg breakfast they were introduced to 100 newspaper women at the White House by Mrs. Roosevelt who described their visit earlier as a "very great contribution to the world peace," and then journeyed again to the British embassy to receive 2000 persons—their subjects and Canadians and Americans who had served with the British forces in the World War.

WAVE TO ADMIRERS

At his press conference, President Roosevelt described the royal couple as "very very delightful people," and related that he had discussed international affairs with the King. But he discussed them, he said, only in the way that "you and I would in these strenuous times."

Reaching the Capitol grounds,

SOVIET FREES U.S. MYSTERY WOMAN; NO CLUE TO MATE

MOSCOW, June 9 (AP)—Soviet Russia suddenly called American Ruth Marie Rubens into Moscow's city court today after holding her mysteriously for a year and a half, convicted her of entering the Soviet Union with a false United States passport and ordered her freed within 24 hours.

Calmly puffing a cigarette Mrs. Rubens pleaded "no defense" during a ten-minute court session in which nothing was said about reports long current that she had been suspected of espionage.

She showed concern only about her husband, known both as Adolph Arnold Rubens and Donald L. Robinson, who has not been heard of since he vanished with her from a Moscow hotel in December, 1937.

The court sentenced her to 18 months' imprisonment and then ruled she had served all but a day of the term.

Her request for information concerning her husband was refused.

United States embassy officials, who have tried for a year and a half to get to the bottom of the case, were present.

The trial came unexpectedly. Only a few hours before Mrs. Rubens appeared in court neatly dressed in a gray suit, hat and fur was it known that developments were expected in the long-drawn affair.

The presiding judge asked her if she had anything to say before sentence.

"A false passport was found on me," Mrs. Rubens replied in English. "I have no defense."

Whether she will be turned over to United States authorities immediately after liberation could not be learned.

Theoretically she might be prosecuted by United States authorities for falsification of an American passport.

The whereabouts of Mrs. Rubens and her husband have been a mystery throughout most of the negotiations between the United States and Soviet governments.

Last November it was reported unofficially the couple had been arrested as German spies, but no details of the charges came to light.

Then the Soviet army newspaper Red Star linked the Rubens' names with the spy trial current at that time in New York, saying that one of the defendants, Gunther Gusslave Rumschik, "no matter how he twisted or turned," had to admit

Nazis Herd 10,000 Jews for Ouster

BERLIN, June 9 (AP)—Between 10,000 and 15,000 Jews were reported today to have been rounded up and headed toward the Polish border for deportation or given definite notice to get out of Germany across other borders.

Reports of threatened retaliation by the Polish government—in the way of wholesale deportation of Germans living in Poland—coincided with the opening of a new drive to hasten the exodus of 11 Jews from Germany. It was the first campaign of its kind since last fall.

Reliable advices reaching Berlin said that all Jews in East Prussia—not merely Polish Jews—were ordered to leave before June 20. The most recent authoritative figures available showed there were 21,000 Jews in East Prussia.

German Jews once held in concentration camps were said to have been called in by police throughout Germany and told bluntly that unless they left Germany soon they would be returned to the camps.

Others must report regularly to their district police headquarters on the progress of their efforts to obtain entry into countries abroad. The drive on Polish Jews shaped up as follows from reports reaching Berlin:

Leipzig—Four thousand given one-month notices to leave.

Munich—Six hundred given one-month notices and unknown number ordered out within a few hours. The reason for this difference in treatment was not known.

Dresden—Several hundred given one-week notice expiring tomorrow.

Kassel—One transport gone, carrying unknown number.

96 MORE REFUGEES DEPART

HAVANA, June 9 (INS)—With a passenger list of 96 despairing Jewish refugees, the French liner Flandre today was on her way back to St. Nazaire, France, having been refused permission to land its unhappy cargo in Mexico or Cuba.

Six fortunate passengers, who were able to show proper visas and post the required bond of $500 each were permitted to debark in Havana.

Like the 907 refugees aboard the German liner St. Louis, the passengers on the Flandre were mostly hysterical when the ship pulled away from the pier.

Fritz Fueschtwanger, brother of the famous author, Lionel Fueschtwanger, and his wife and two daughters were among those who steeled themselves for the voyage back to Europe and mustered courage enough to smile and wave from the rail.

As the Flandre sailed, an agent for the American National Coordinating Committee said he pleaded that the liner be allowed to remain for only one more hour so he could raise the additional $15,000 needed to permit the refugees to land in Santo Domingo. However, the Flandre's officers said she was long overdue and must sail immediately.

Seek New Haven for 907 Refugees

NEW YORK, June 9 (INS)—L desperate efforts were being made today by officials of the American Jewish joint distribution committee to find a refuge in some other land than Cuba for the 907 Jewish refugees from Germany aboard the liner St. Louis and reported on route back to Hamburg.

Hopes that the refugees might yet be permitted to land in Cuba were definitely blasted with the receipt of a cablegram from Cuba stating their admission was "impossible" despite the posting of a $500,000 bond by the committee. Acting Chairman James N. Rosenberg of the committee said efforts still were being made to find a new refuge before Sunday after which it will be impossible to divert the St. Louis from her present course.

CZECHS FACE MASS ARRESTS

PRAGUE, June 9 (AP).—German reported today mass arrests would be carried out if Czechs failed to produce the slay of a German police sergeant in Kladno by 3 o'clock.

They said the arrests would continue until the person or persons responsible for the first German fatality since Reichsführer Hitler absorbed Bohemia and Moravia in to greater Germany were found.

Kidnapping already is under strict regulations which may be widened into martial law tonight if the deadline passes without the ultimatum being heeded. The mayor, chief of police and many others already are in custody.

STERN WARNING

The policeman, Wilhelm Kriest, was killed late Wednesday night or early Thursday morning in front of the Technical School in Kladno, in district town 15 miles from Prague. Behind the stern measures in former Nazis said, was a threat to abolish the last semblance of Czech self-government.

They said the German action was intended to set an example to discourage possible further slayings and perhaps to avoid the necessity of abolishing the protectorate which responsible sources predicted would follow "if the Czechs cannot rule themselves."

The bulk of German troops sent with the army of occupation last March had been withdrawn and the small garrisons remaining probably will be sent to Kladno if martial law is proclaimed.

HEAVY POLICE FORCE

Police from Germany went into Bohemia and Moravia in heavy numbers as the army moved out about two months ago.

Hakon Konstantin von Neurath, the Reich protector, governor of Bohemia and Moravia, formerly part of Czechoslovakia after conquering Chancellor Hitler removed the Kladno mayor, appointed a new official, dissolved the city state police, closed public houses and several schools, forbade outdoor assemblies and ordered windows and doors locked at 10 p. m.

6000 Nazi Troops

In Danzig for Rally

FREE CITY OF DANZIG, June 9 (AP).—about 6000 East Prussian troops arrived here today to participate in a rally tonight at which Hitler's chief of staff, the brown-shirted S. A. corps, Viktor Lutze, and Danzig's Nazi leader, Albert Forster, will speak.

The occasion was the opening of the annual sports festival of the East Prussian troops for which Danzig has been selected as the site this year.

In official Danzig party circles it was declared Lutze's visit had no connection with the German-Polish tension over the status of the Free City. He was said to have come merely for the sports events tomorrow and Sunday.

Half-Million Jailed by Franco

NEW YORK, June 9 (AP).—Nearly 200,000 Italian troops remain in Spain, and "about half a million" Republicans who opposed General Francisco Franco's Nationalist forces are in concentration camps, Alfred Cope, Quaker representative, said on his return from the war-torn country yesterday.

He has completed 10 months as regional director of relief work for the American Friends service committee in eastern and southeastern Spain and is the first Quaker representative to return to this country since Franco's victory.

"From the Italians I have seen myself I would say, if they've withdrawn 25,000, then they've of them," Cope said. "I would estimate that three times that number still are in camps. As for Germans, I didn't see many myself." Of Republican prisoners held in concentration camps, Cope continued, "about half a million is the figure usually given. There are camps everywhere."

France Renews Pledge

PARIS, June 9 (AP).—Foreign Minister Georges Bonnet emphasized today France's unreserved promise to fight for Poland after conferring privately with Jozef Jakubowski, Polish ambassador to Paris.

Bonnet speaking at a luncheon of a group of deputies interested in French-Polish relations, underlined the assurances already given to Poland by Britain and France.

At the same time, France ordered it move new warships built to strengthen her fleet. They included four 2500-ton destroyers capable of speeds of more than 40 knots and heavily armed; six 1000-ton destroyers, only slightly less heavily armed; almost as fast, and four 100-ton minesweepers.

The foreign ministry, meanwhile, was following carefully reports from the Free city of Danzig and

Jewish Girl, With Bomb in Basket Seized

JERUSALEM, June 9 (AP).—A Jewish girl in Arab attire was seized today, police announced, with a basket of fruit and vegetable in which was concealed a time bomb. She was arrested near the Jerusalem central prison which is usually filled with Moslem visitors Friday mornings.

WAR SUPPLIES CZAR

LONDON, June 9 (INS).—Dietatorial powers over Britain's war supply industries will be conferred in London today under the ministry of supply bill debated in the House of Commons.

BRITISH JAIL FOUR IN IRISH BOMBINGS

STIRLING, Scotland, June 9 (AP).—Terence McSherry, an Irishman, was convicted today of stealing explosives to make bombs and was sentenced to prison for 10 years.

McSherry one of four men convicted on the theft charges, had told the jury that the British government was responsible for the recent wave of bombings in England and Scotland because of its refusal to withdraw British troops from northern Ireland.

The others—Francis McNeese, Samuel Kennedy and Matthew Somerville—were sentenced to terms of from 18 months to seven years. McSherry told the jury he was "entitled to give you an explanation as to what has taken place in Scotland and England."

"In January of this year, the army council of the Irish Republican Army (illegal anti-British organization) sent the British foreign secretary a note demanding withdrawal of all British troops from northern Ireland. "All representations failed."

Milady Beauty Cost Top in N. Y. Suburb

By JANE COCHRAN

NEW YORK, June 9 (INS)—The cash we women choose to spend for our curly locks and schoolgirl complexions—once known only to our budgets—is a matter of public record today.

3 BEATEN OVER HEAD, ONE DEAD

LOWELL, June 9. A 79-year-old man died in St. Joseph's Hospital today and a man and woman lay in critical condition as the result of a brutal battering climaxing an all-night party in a Palmer street home.

The dead man was Joseph Melville of Palmer street, caretaker at the house where the fight occurred. At St. Joseph's in critical condition were Mrs. Lena Karansa, 36, of the same address, and Arthur Homet, 32 of Columbia street.

Catherine Karansa, 31-year-old daughter of Mrs. Karansa, was awakened by crashes and screams, sobbing with terror, she ran to the house of a relative on Salem street. The relative called police.

When officers arrived at the Palmer street house, scene only two months ago of a stabbing, they found the two men and the woman lying on the floor, badly battered. A baseball bat, apparently the weapon, was on the floor nearby.

DIES IN HEATER BLAST

LOUISVILLE, Ky., June 9 (INS)—One man was killed and at least three others critically burned when a heater exploded, setting after two gasoline stoves, at the Astra Oil Service, Inc. processing plant.

It's down in black and white—from the 46 cents yearly the women of East Providence, R. I. average to the $43.20 each White Plains, N. Y., lady contributes to the beautician's bankroll—in a survey compiled by the Printer's Ink monthly.

Results being what count, the men previously have paid little interest to the cost of milady's ravishing appearance. However, enterprising sleuths started surveying all cities of 25,000 population or over and found out that $182, 000,000 was rung up in one year on the beauty shop cash registers of those towns.

$1.25 IS AVERAGE

They only considered "females of 18 or over," believing this to be the age when the women take their beauty seriously, and discovered that the average woman spends $4.25 a head.

White Plains, the shopping center of one of the country's wealthiest suburbs, outshines all others. No other city even approaches the figure, but suburban centers such as Cleveland Heights, Easton, East Orange, and Oak Park, show high expenditures.

The average Mississippi woman, whether it is because nature made her so beautiful she needs little artificial additions or because she simply doesn't care, spends only 24 cents yearly on manicures, hair curling and facials.

COLLEGE GIRLS A FACTOR

Towns populated by college girls rank heads above their neighboring big cities. Women in Madison, seat of the University of Wisconsin, average $12.70 for the year. Poughkeepsie, N. Y., where the Vassar girls take their hairdressing problem, has 26 beauty shops and an average expenditure of $8.80 a woman.

California, with a figure of $8.36, tops the states, aided greatly by Los Angeles, $11.30. Manhattan borough of New York city, where hair stylists, coiffure artists and just plain beauty parlors abound, only averages $17.90 and it has 1501 beauty shops.

50 American passports had been obtained for sending German spies into Russia.

The government's investigation led to the suspicion of a spy plot of many ramifications but did nothing to clear up the mysterious disappearance of Rubens and his American wife. There was evidence that the Rubens entered Moscow Nov. 6, 1937, but the husband dropped from sight Dec. 2 and his wife a week later.

The three men convicted in New York were accused specifically of having obtained fraudulently 15 passports for the Rubens couple. Among the names forged on the documents were those taken from submarines.

Hub Debs to Aid Prince Olav Welcome

Boston debutantes and Norwegian girls will distribute programs at the festival of welcome and Symphony concert for Crown Prince Olav and Crown Princess Martha of Norway at Symphony Hall, July 3.

Final plans for the party were announced by Irving Olav, chairman of the committee on arrangements, and by Axel G. Dehly, in charge of the children's program. Gov. Saltonstall, Mayor Tobin and Bjorne Urain, Norwegian consul in Boston, will speak.

Angler at 99

COVENTRY, R. I., June 9 (INS)—"A man is never too old to fish," said 99-year-old Jeremiah Hopkins, oldest Civil War veteran in Rhode Island today as he displayed his 1939 fishing license.

Noted Scientists Speak At Child Hospital Fete

Scientists nationally famous for their work in curbing childhood diseases were speakers today at the scientific sessions of the anniversary celebration at Children's Hospital.

It is a dual celebration, for not only is it the 70th anniversary of the hospital itself, but the 50th anniversary of the hospital's school of nursing.

When the hospital was founded,
there were no trained nurses in America; and no hospitals to study and treat the maladies of childhood.

It is a three-day observance, ending tomorrow night. It opened yesterday.

Speakers included Samuel H.
Wolcott, president of the board of managers; Dr. Alan Gregg, director of medical sciences at the Rockefeller Foundation; Miss Stella Goostray, president of the School of Nursing; Miss Effie J. Taylor, dean of Yale school of Nursing. Graduation certificates were awarded by President Wolcott.

"The Alliance of Medical School and Hospital," was discussed by Dr. Gregg of Rockefeller Foundation. He called the hospital "the Roman road to medicine," and added:

"If the hospital is the Roman road to medicine, if it is the place where medicine can realize to the full its innate potential-ties, then it simply must associate with any institution where knowledge is being extended and refined by research.

"The hospital cannot wisely confine its staff to repetitious routine or forego the earnest alertness of the research atmosphere. And, above all, the hospital must seek out youth, the youth coming on perpetually through the university."

Gasoline Truck Valve Snaps, Plenty Happens

A gasoline truck in the city has had a valve snap and plenty of things have happened. The truck was driving on a street when the valve snapped. The valve was a part of the truck's engine and it was very important. The valve snapped and the engine stopped. The truck was stuck in the middle of the street and it was very dangerous. The driver of the truck was very nervous and he was trying to get the truck moving. The truck was stuck for a long time and it was very frustrating. The driver of the truck was very angry and he was shouting at the people who were watching. The truck was finally moved and the driver was able to get away. The valve was replaced and the truck was able to drive again. The incident was a reminder that it is important to take care of your vehicle. The valve is a small part of the engine but it is very important. If the valve snaps, the engine will stop and the truck will be stuck. The driver of the truck should have been more careful and should have checked the valve before driving. The incident was a reminder that it is important to take care of your vehicle. # Solons Scan 'Radical' Record of MacLeish

By GEORGE ROTHWELL BROWN
Special to Boston Evening American

WASHINGTON, June 9. (AP)—The House today passed a resolution to investigate the record and writings of Archibald MacLeish, a member of the House of Representatives.

The resolution, introduced by Representative Robert H. Jackson, D-Mich., and passed by a vote of 319 to 107, calls for a study of MacLeish's record in the House and his writings, including his book "The Book of the Damned," which was published in 1935. The resolution also calls for a study of MacLeish's record in the House and his writings, including his book "The Book of the Damned," which was published in 1935.

ROGERS STORES OPEN SAT. NITE 'TIL 9:00

The World's Best Razor—an ideal gift for Father, Graduate and Bridesroom!

$10

25¢ DOWN-25¢ WEEKLY
GIVE DAD A GIFT HE'LL
ACTUALLY USE ALL HIS LIFE

BARBERS KNOW RAZORS—Ask an expert barber why he relies safely on a razor with a fine steel hollow-ground blade. He'll tell you that this is the only blade capable of holding a perfect shaving edge. Water-thin blades or mechanical gadgets won't do it.

ROLLS RAZOR STAYS SHARP—A semi-automatic strap and hone keep it sharp. Dressing and honing is done in the sturdy metal case with pressure and angle properly controlled. Thirty seconds of vigorous stroking on the red leather strap just before shaving restores the blade to its original keenness. Honing (on the stone) is equally simple but is required infrequently. Twenty to thirty slow strokes each way are sufficient.

ROLLS RAZOR IS BETTER—The Rolls Razor has all the virtues of the old fashioned straight razor but it's the simplest of safety razors with a permanent guard attached to the blade. Its size is smaller and handier. It stays sharp shave after shave, month after month, year after year.

FLAT AGAINST THE FACE—Because of the scientific construction of the Rolls Razor you hold it almost flat against the face. Now, you actually shave—not rake—your face. Each hair is sharply and cleanly cut at its base. Hold the razor at the correct angle and you'll get a smooth, close shave every morning.

HOLLOW-GROUND SHEFFIELD STEEL—The Rolls Razor has a blade of finest Sheffield steel, forged by hand, hollow-ground, tempered to perfect tensile and subjected to 243 tests. The edge is so fine it cannot be seen with naked eye—it takes a 100-power microscope to bring it out.

GRAND SHAVES SINCE 1928—Millions of Rolls Razors have been sold since 1928. Most of those sold ten years ago are still giving perfect shaves. When you buy a Rolls Razor you are through worrying about the inconsistency of blades, the annoyance of running out of sharp ones, the cost of replenishments. Nor need you worry about electric outlets, the rasping of motors and the frequent impossibility of getting a decent shave.

Charlestown Bands To Keep Homes

Following a stormy hearing at Charlestown High School today where 500 residents met, the Charlestown Bands decided to stay in the town and keep their homes. The bands had been told to leave the town and go to the city.

The bands were told to leave the town and go to the city. The bands had been told to leave the town and go to the city. The bands had been told to leave the town and go to the city.

I had intended to move for any one of my own reasons. I don't think the plan will go through.

U. S. Flags Fly Over All Boston

The city of Boston today observed the first day of Flag Week with a series of ceremonies and events. The day began with a parade of floats and bands, followed by a large gathering at the city hall where the American flag was raised. The day was filled with patriotic songs and speeches, and the city was decorated with many flags. The observance was a success and the people of Boston showed their pride in their country.

Although the results of the regression analysis are not statistically significant, the fact that the  $\beta$  coefficient for the variable Time to Market is negative indicates that the longer it takes to get a product to market, the lower the sales are likely to be. This is not surprising, since the longer it takes to get a product to market, the more likely it is that the product will be obsolete by the time it reaches the market.

Burne's eyes were only for Day, sitting there so small and lovely. "Saw some violets, dear," he said. "Will you wear them?"

'THE YOUNG MR. LINCOLN'

Abe Hurls Verbal Bomb At State's Star Witness

SHERIFF BILLINGS shifted his great bulk uneasily in his seat as he listened to the testimony of the young man who had been called to the stand by the State's attorney.

"I saw some violets," he said. "Will you wear them?"

"I saw some violets," he said. "Will you wear them?"

"I saw some violets," he said. "Will you wear them?"

"I saw some violets," he said. "Will you wear them?"

Fish Salads Economical; New Recipes

By MARION LEE

Salads are happy symphonies in green! They must be prepared harmonized with color and ingredients if they are to meet the demands of epicures. The cooking of a salad is really a sort of an art.

The difference between fish and other salads is that the fish must be fresh and tender. The art of preparing the fish salad is in the dressing. The dressing is the key to the success of the salad. The dressing should be light and flavorful. The dressing should be made with care.

Fish salads are a healthy food as well as a delicious one. They can be used for the main course of a lunch or for a light supper. They are easy to make and can be prepared in advance.

Simple Fish Salad

Lionel Barrymore Seals 'Calling Dr. Kildare' Film Honors

Sterling Acting Marks New Loew's Feature

By PEGGY DOYLE

It is going to be difficult accepting Lionel Barrymore on the screen without his eyes down and easily realizing now that the "Dr. Kildare" series has established his identity with the film.

In "Calling Dr. Kildare," Barrymore plays the role of Dr. Kildare, a young man who, after a long and arduous journey, finds himself in a small town where he must prove his worth as a doctor. The film is a classic example of Barrymore's talent, showing his ability to portray a character with depth and emotion.

The film is a classic example of Barrymore's talent, showing his ability to portray a character with depth and emotion. The story is a heartwarming tale of a young man who finds his true calling in life.

HENRY FONDA'S LINCOLN HIGHLIGHTS SCREEN EPIC AT MET

Alice Brady Wins Laurels With Mother Portrayal

By PEGGY DOYLE

There's no Hollywood hokum about "Young Mr. Lincoln," which is all the heartwarming humor and the homespun honesty of a great man himself without a hint of the imminent greatness that was to make him an immortal.

Presented on the Metropolitan screen yesterday "Young Mr. Lincoln," a picture that is more than a mere historical pageant. No, the last of the great American screen epics of the past decade, it is a masterpiece of acting and direction. It is a picture that is as much a work of art as any picture ever made.

ROOM AND BOARD By Gene Ahern

place. It stifles a squeak."

Among other things that Mr. Klem invented was the eye-and-ear system of umpiring at first base. In the old time the umpire stationed himself behind the base and judged purely by rule of vision whether the ball reached the baseman's glove before the runner's foot touched the base. But Mr. Klem devised the notion of standing in front of the base and watching the runner's foot while listening for the spat of the ball on the baseman's glove. "It employs the several senses more economically," he said.

HE FINDS THAT THE OLD breed of rambunctious managers like George Stallings, John McGraw, Frank Chance and others, have given place to more placid types, like Bill McKechnie, Casey Stengel, Caddy Hartnett and "Old Terry." "Did you say Terry?" I asked in mild surprise.

"Yes, Terry," said Mr. Klem. "He is a very reasonable man. The managers have simplified the umpire's job. Whichever? Compared with McGraw they are as gentle zephyrs to a Florida hurricane. McGraw, rest his soul, made a life study of insult and always started a ball game with some gem of pure vituperation. In those days the umpire used to have to go down to the dugouts to get the pre-game batting order and it was always a running fire of sneers and snideness. I changed that too. Now the captains bring the lists to the plate and all is cordial with them and us."

As to you, he let his nickname of "Catfish," a sobriquet that is very distasteful to Mr. Klem, he was reticent at first. For even to this day the ball players know they must not call Mr. Klem "Catfish" if they hope to remain on the premises. A lot of people think John McGraw was using that on him. But Mr. Klem says "No!"

McGraw had nothing to do with it," he said, basso profundo. "I came into the National League in 1904 with that name already established. Derby Dix Bill Cimer, rest his soul—the cruelest little cuss' gave it to me. I fired him out of three ball games hand running and he got sore. So he said I looked like a catfish and the name stuck, though personally I think I am a very handsome gent and resent the name as a pronounced piece of impudence."

By this time Mr. Klem had completed his perspiration and wound up by putting "Mr. Wild Irish Rose" in his naked shanks. He then retired to a room in a robin's egg blue jacket with pale lavender pants he set his $10 Panama at a rolish angle. "I," said Mr. Klem, cum sine voce, am off to the factory."

WOODY RICH JOHNNY ORLANDO

SOX NEED HIM. Woody Rich, prize rookie pitcher, has arm bandaged by Assistant Trainer Johnny Orlando at Fenway Park. Woody's sore arm has kept him home while mates are away.

RICH STILL BARRED FROM USING ARM

By HERB FINNEGAN

This is not only Centennial Year in the great national pastime, it's also Comelback Year—especially for the pitchers.

Among the veterans who were question marks as the season opened were Lefty Grove, Tommy Bridges, Dizzy Dean, Carl Hubbell and Wesley Ferrell.

Among the semi-veterans were Schoeneyer Howe, Paul Dean and Hal Schumacher.

But who ever thought an unknown rookie would be listed among these question marks six weeks later?

Not only that, but just as vital in his club's cause as any of the above artists.

That's Woody Rich of our Red Sox.

26-WIN PROSPECT

Pennant prospects were bright at Fenway a month ago when the long Cardinian was mowing them down. Few rookies ever broke in more impressively.

He blanked the A's with five hits in his major league debut.

He followed that up with a three-hitter against the Tigers, winning, 4 to 1.

"A 26-game winner," chirped the experts. "The Sox are sitting pretty."

Woody gave them some Chisox six hits in his fourth start while waiting in, 18 to 4.

On Tuesday, May 23, he was beaten by Buck Newsum and the Tigers on a cold, damp day at Fenway. The score was 7-2. That might have been the start of his trouble.

He might have caught cold that day. He himself isn't sure.

At any rate the Sox took a nose dive against Cleveland, and lost ground to the Yanks.

Joe Cronin, in desperation, shook up his batting order, and pitched his luck piece, Rich, against the Senators the next Friday.

Woody would lick the Nats, Joe figured, and be ready to hurl in the crucial Memorial Day double header with the Yanks. That was on May 26.

He licked the Nats all right, but he was forced to retire in the eighth inning because his arm was bothering him.

Doctors examined him. "Just a strained muscle from the cold," they said. "He'll be all right in a day or two. He'll be ready for the Yanks next Tuesday."

They were wrong. The Sox went west June 1 without Woody. They were 5½ games behind the Yanks when they left.

They're nine now. While the Sox have been away, Woody hasn't even been allowed to throw. Johnny Orlando takes his arm for half an hour each morning, then Woody runs up and down the outfield for another half hour.

SOX HOME TUESDAY Johnny binds his arm tightly after each workout, and Woody keeps the bandage on overnight. The club physician examines him twice a week, but he still hasn't told him when he could throw.

The Sox will be home Tuesday. The double header season is just ahead. Now's the time to pick up ground on the flying Yankees. They're due for a nose dive, and the Sox are due for a spurt.

But the Sox need Woody for that spurt—need him as much as the Cubs need Dean, as much as the Giants need Hubbell.

An odd situation for a 22-year-old in his time less than two months. Key man in the pitching plans of a pennant contender. Imagine!

Is he all done after a meteoric six-game streak? Or will he be mowing them down again in these perfect June days?

Skip the grandstand Manager this time. Joe Cronin's the boy who wants to know.

Bob Quinn Denies Bees Being Sold to Danforth

Bob Quinn, president of the Bees, denied quite vehemently today that William H. Danforth, Boston broker, is negotiating for the club and that the sale would be consummated soon.

"If the Bees are being sold, I know nothing about it," said Quinn this morning. "As a matter of fact, I haven't seen Mr. Danforth since the last World Series."

WILLING TO SELL

There may or may not be anything to the reports.

It is known that Charles F. Adams is the actual owner of the Bees, and it is equally well known that he would be willing to dispose of his holdings if an equitable sale could be arranged.

Adams is also president of the Eastern Racing Association, operators of Suffolk Downs.

Adams at the time of his breakup with Judge Knott, Esquire, called on lengthy negotiations with Francis Farnell Murphy of Nashua, N. H., and the new governor of New Hampshire came near taking control of the Bees.

Mr. Danforth is the man who was reputed to have cleaned up $5,000,000 by "selling short" during the stock market crash of 1929.

He is a close friend of Francis Quinn, the golfer, and Quinn himself is an ardent baseball fan.

Danforth is now in his middle forties. He is a very retiring figure, but is believed to be well equipped financially to back a ball club of major league proportions.

If any change were to be made now, it is likely that Bob Quinn would remain as president, for member Danforth now Quinn has had any experience running a club.

Quinn issued the following statement upon hearing the Danforth report:

QUINN'S STATEMENT

"The newspapers today carry a story to the effect that Mr. William H. Danforth is negotiating for the purchase of the Boston National League Baseball Club."

"I desire to state that neither Mr. Danforth nor any representative of his has contacted me or anyone connected with the ball club with reference to its purchase, nor have I or any of my associates conducted negotiations with any other person for the sale of the club."

"BOB QUINN."

Special Outing For Nature Lovers

A special outing will be held Sunday, Hill Top Haven, in Sharon, the museum cabin home of Harry George Higbee, staff naturalist of the WPA-MDC division of recreation.

The location of this cabin, the highest residence between Maine and North Carolina with 25 miles of the seacoast, offers a unique view over 25 cities and towns.

There will be an opportunity to hear the wood thrush, the veery and the heron thrush in their native haunts, to stand on the ancient ledges and look out over the beautiful valley to see the natural history exhibits of a lifetime of nature study and to wander through the nearby woodland where the forest dwellers make their homes.

A special bus will leave Forest Hills square, just outside the south end of the Terminal Station, at 2:30 p. m.

BROWNS, RED SOX ATTEMPT TWIN BILL

ST. LOUIS, June 9.—The weatherman upset the plans of the Red Sox and Browns yesterday. Both clubs had scheduled a double bill but were fortunate in getting one game in which the Bostonians won in the ninth, 8 to 7.

Both clubs will try again today to stage a twin bill. Bagby and Wilson vs. Kennedy and Kramer are listed as the opposing pitchers.

Bobby Doerr, star second baseman of the invaders was back at second and although relieved by Tom Coney, did a remarkable job covering the Keystone ankle.

Boston and three hurlers, while the Browns had two on the firing line, Dennis Galehouse opened on the hill for the visitors and was picked for this, four runs and two walks in five innings. Joe Heying followed Galehouse to the "rubber" and allowed two hits, three runs and three walks in one and two-thirds frames. Duckman gave up one hit and one walk in two and one-third innings and received credit for the victory.

George Gid was the Browns' starting pitcher and failed to retire a batter as three singles and Jimmy Fox's eighth home run of the season into the left field bleachers routed him.

John Whitehead late of the Chicago White Sox, was the second Browns' thrower and permitted nine hits four runs and one walk in nine innings and was charged with the defeat.

HITTER. Ruine Majeski, Bees' rookie third baseman, who has been hitting at .433 clip since he was inserted in lineup against Reds last week.

Bees have picked up considerably since a's debut.

SINABALD! BEST

PORTLAND, Me. June 9 (AP)—Al Sinabald, 177, Berlin, N. H. boxer, spiked Lou Cooper's heavy artillery and won a 10 round newspaper decision over the 185-pound Bath shipyard welder.

ONE-MINUTE INTERVIEW
Bill Terry: "I asked the Phillies about Al Hollingsworth... Pro-three automatics by demanding either Bonura or Whitehead, plus Lohman or Kampouris... Also they wanted the Giants to pay half of Bonura's salary if he was included... That forced me."

Personals: Young Bill McKee-nie, who has a swell voice, was given a radio audition during the Reds' stay in New York... The Fort Worth papers front-paged the marriage of Kl Aldrich, Texas
Christian's All-America center...
Tommy Lughran, the old heavyweight, gives El Glento just one minute against Joe Louis... Tony Lazzeri has no job. But he can afford to wait till next winter when there'll be several managerial vacancies in each major loop.
Umpire Babe Pinoli won't let his two sons (now at Notre Dame) sign with National League clubs—too embarrassing when the close ones come up... The Texas Christian board of directors have ruled no other footballer shall ever wear No. 8, the numeral carried so gloriously
the past two years by little Davey O'Brien.

President Roosevelt Offers His Hand in Greeting

King Answers President's Welcome With a Broad Smile

Hands of Friendship—As Mrs. Roosevelt (back to camera) and Sec. of State Hull (extreme right) stand by, President Roosevelt offers America's welcome to British King and Queen.

Roses Win Royal Smile

Captivating—Pleased by these American Beauty roses, presented her by Girl Scout Leah Burkett, at Washington, D. C., Queen Elizabeth smiles her thanks, demonstrating once again the warm friendliness and magnetic personality which has won her the hearts of all who have seen her during her U. S. visit.
